

Holdup Suspects Misparked

LOSE WEIGHT

No Drugs, No Exercises
Write or Call For FREE Details
New England School of Hypnotism
25 School St., Quincy
Tel. 472-4046

Two gunmen bound and gagged four persons in a Back Bay shop Monday and fled with about $75,000 in furs.

Patrolman Bernard Kearney, who had found the getaway car illegally parked, relayed its registration number to detectives, who caught two suspects in it in East Boston, but the furs were not there.

The robbery was on the fourth-floor shop of Huerth & Huerth, Inc., 376 Boylston st. The gunmen used clothes and adhesive tape to bind and gag Carl Huerth of 66 Edgehill rd., Sharon, owner, and Mrs. Ida Vogt of Somerville, Arnold Green of Cambridge and Thomas Finn of Canton, employees.

Huerth said one of the suspects came to the shop Friday on the pretext of shopping for a mink coat for his wife.

Planning A Trip To WASHINGTON D C ?