

the show would run from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. So help me, Shirley Bassey, the lather must have gotten into my ears, Bill. Anyway, Marlowe is off from 12 till 1 but quite soon his show will be stretched until 3 in the afternoon. Speaking of music, a special locomotive for Tony Cennamo on WBUR-FM on Friday nights, the team at BCN and VBF (FM, too) and the nighttime spinners at WBET-FM in Brockton.

SUMMER SESSION—Remember Dick Summer, ex-deejay of WKOX, WBZ, WMEX and elsewhere? Dick sent me a note and a copy of his new "Lovin' Touch" single (Random House) this week. It's poetry, recited by Summer, previously released on two volumes by the same name. One track, "Losers," in particular, a sort of count-your-riches theme, makes so much glittering sense, is beautifully phrased and sensitively read. Dick is currently heard on New York's WLPJ.

WEEKENDING—Cornetist Ruby Braff's homecoming includes another gig tonight with the Drootin' Brothers at the Scotch 'n' Sirloin, 77 North Washington st. The Irish Rovers one-night it Thursday, Aug. 30, at the Beachcomber. Myles Connor returns there for a Monday and Wednesday split date, Aug. 27 and 29.
